

UK
UNIVERSITY OF KENTUCKY
Tracy Farmer Center for the Environment

WOW Wonders of Wetlands Workshop

SATURDAY April 19, 2008

9:00 am to 4:00 p.m.

Rodburn Elementary School

91 Christy Creek

(Intersection of US 60 & KY 32)

Morehead, KY 40351

Receive practical, hands-on instruction on how to use wetlands for science, mathematics, social studies and art education plus explore the new ephemeral wetland and rain-garden at Rodburn Elementary School

Workshop is free, but space is limited – so register now!

Name:

School/Organization:

Address:

E-Mail:

To register please complete this form and e-mail to: tombiebighauser@gmail.com

For additional information call Tom Biebighauser (606) 356-4569

You're encouraged to dress for the outdoors and bring rubber boots if you have them!

Free lunch, WOW Wetland Curriculum guidebook, and educational materials provided by PRIDE, MSU, and the Sheltopee Environmental Education Coalition

6 hours Professional Development available with approval from your school.

WOW! Is a comprehensive introduction to wetland issues and definitions and is a resource recommended by the National Science Teacher's Association. A committee of educators has correlated WOW activities with the National Science Education Standards developed by the National Academy of Sciences, and to core content of studies for Kentucky. Instructors include Tom Biebighauser, Wildlife Biologist, US Forest Service and Kandris Goodwin, Programs Coordinator, University of Kentucky, Tracy Farmer Center for the Environment